

These Thanksgiving activities will help your students celebrate the unique ways that they and others observe the Thanksgiving holiday!

Students will:

- Celebrate what makes them special
- Celebrate what makes others special
- Understand that everyone celebrates the Thanksgiving holiday differently

These activities would go perfectly with the book "Duck For Turkey Day" by Jacqueline Jules!

“My Special Turkey” Activity

- Students will decorate their turkeys according to 10 prompts that help students celebrate their strengths and interests. The completed turkeys can be kept by the students or used as a classroom display to help students understand the diversity in their classroom!
- There are also 5 discussion questions included to help guide the activity!

"All About My Special Thanksgiving" Booklet

- These 6 pages help students celebrate what makes their Thanksgiving holiday special!
- Students will write and draw about what they eat, who they spend time with, and what they do to celebrate the holiday!

"My Thanksgiving Meal" Worksheet

- Students will draw a picture of what they eat for Thanksgiving, and write about why it is special!
- This can be kept by the students, or used as a classroom display!
