

Help your students learn to express their feelings and solve conflicts by using I-statements!

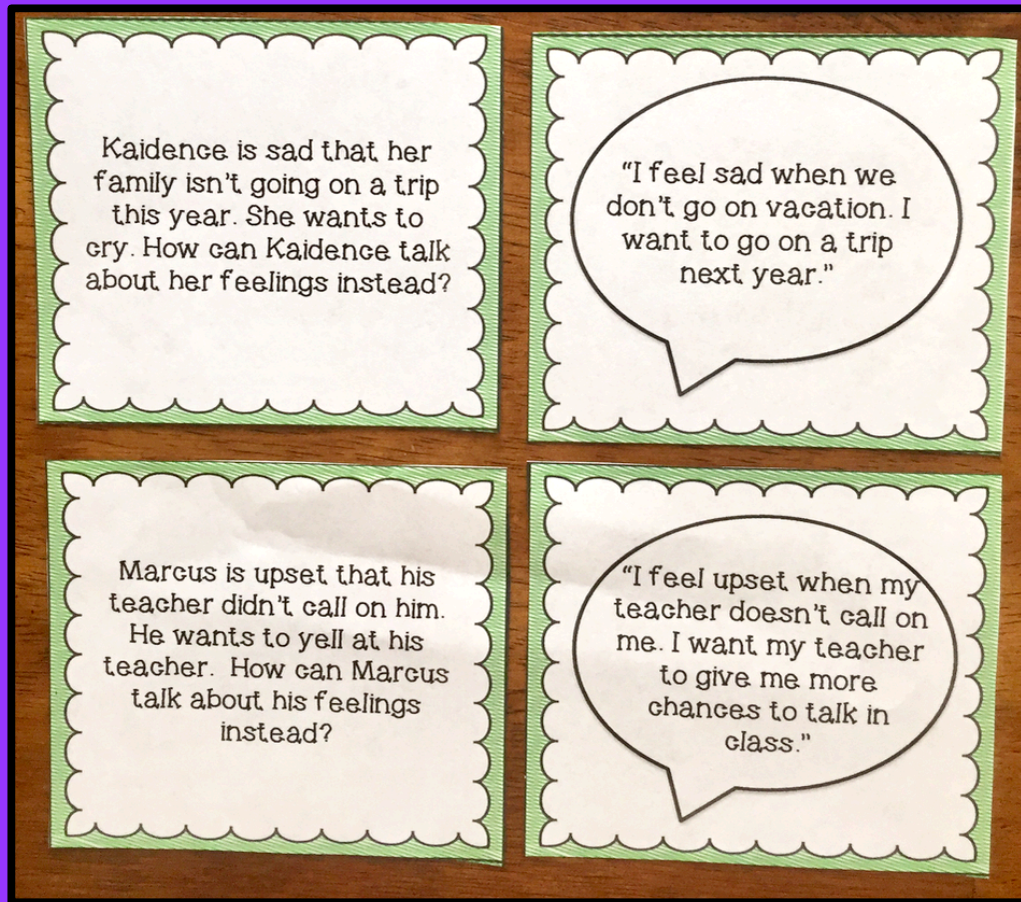

Poster Included!

Perfect for:

- Conflict resolution lessons or groups
- Feelings/emotions lessons or groups
- Social skills lessons or groups
- Students who could benefit from expressing their feelings in an appropriate way

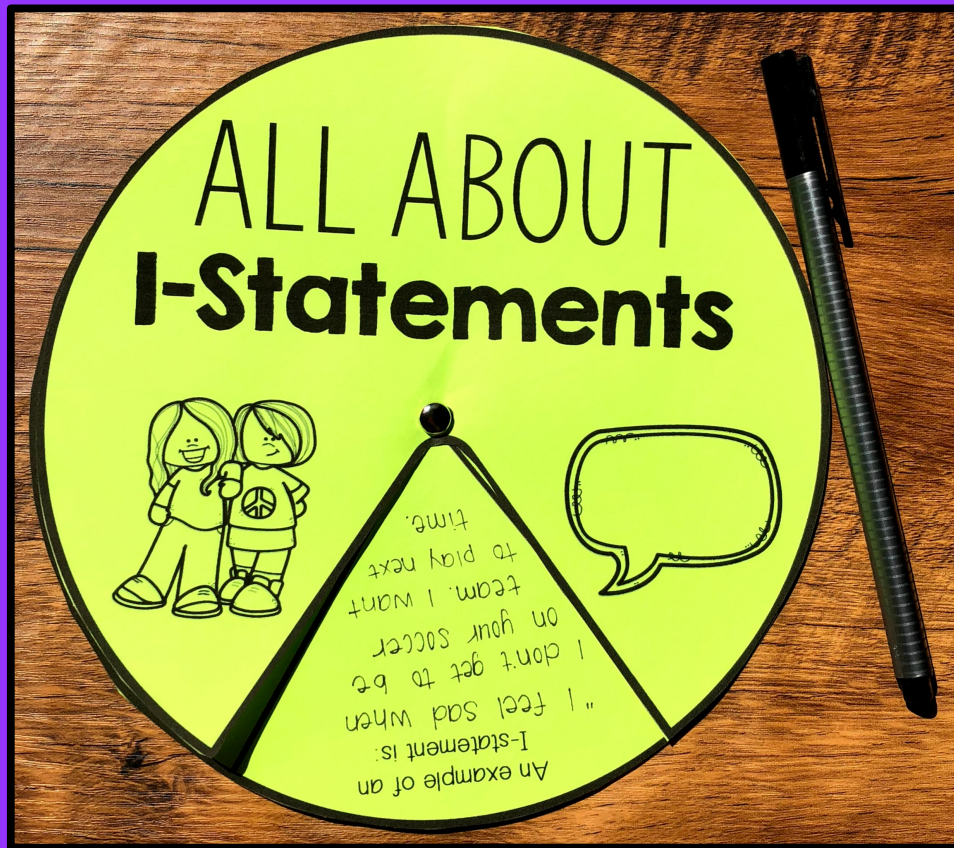

Includes 21 scenario and I-statement cards to be used as a matching game!

Students will match the I-statement cards to the correct scenario cards!

Also includes blank response cards for higher level students.

Includes an “All About I-Statements” Spinner

Includes the following five prompts:

- I-statements are important because...
- An example of an I-statement is...
- A situation when I may need to use an I-statement is...
- I-statements make the other person feel...
- I can make sure I am calm before talking about my conflict by...

A great takeaway for students to use as a reminder of how to use I-statements and why they are important!