

Help your students learn important conversation skills with these snowman themed activities!

Students will practice:

- Staying on topic
- Turn taking
- Responding appropriately

Perfect for:

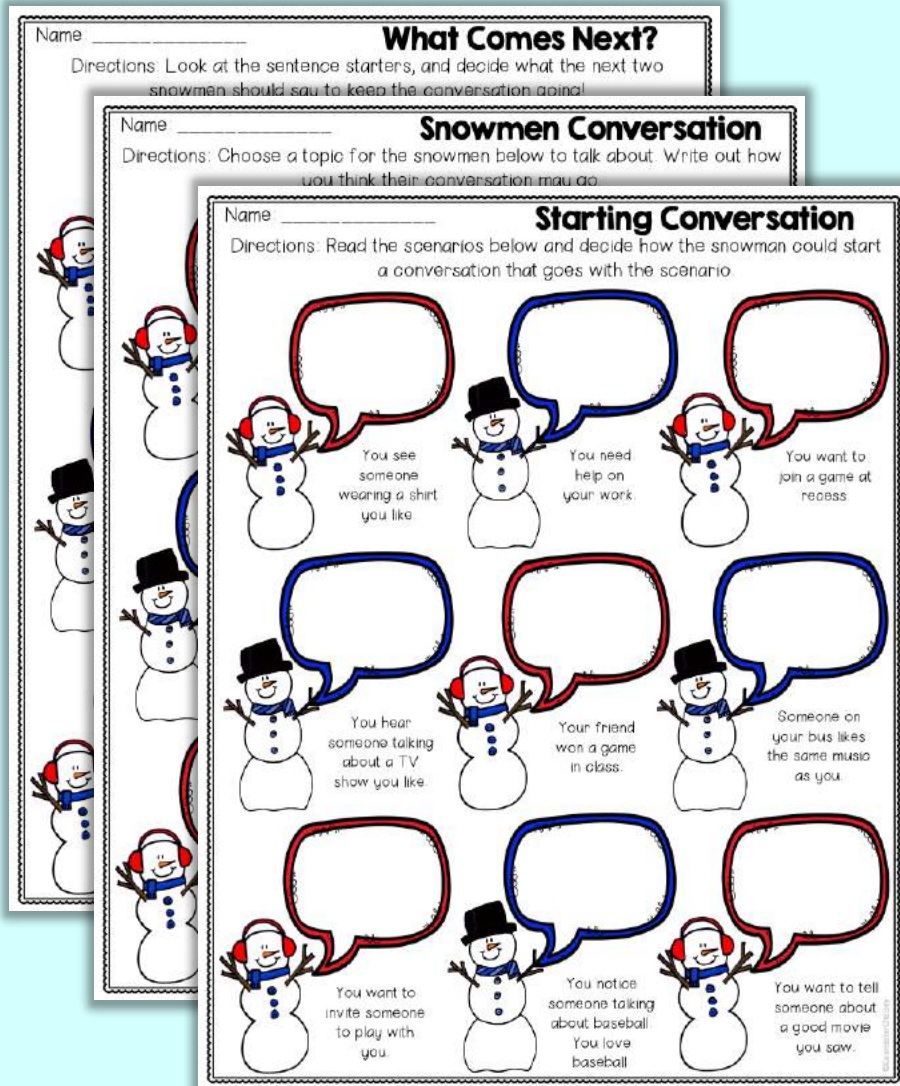

- Social skills lessons or groups
- Students with autism
- Students with ADHD

Appropriate Responses Matching Game

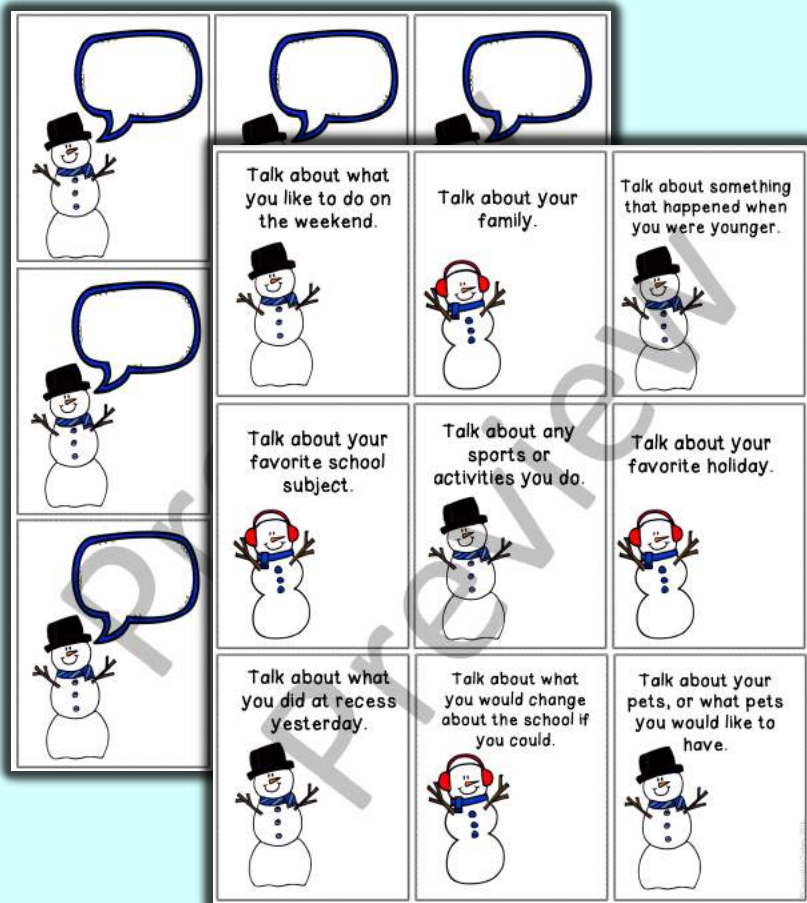

Students will look at 9 conversation starters, and match them to the correct response.

3 Worksheets

For these 3 worksheets, students will practice initiating and responding in conversation. They will also have a chance to come up with a pretend conversation between two snowmen.

Conversation Practice Game

Students will have conversations about various topics while practicing staying on topic and not talking too much or too little.

Poster/Visual Aid

In a conversation, we

- Take turns speaking.
- Use kind words.
- Ask and answer questions.
- Use our manners.
- Make eye contact.
- Speak loud enough, but not too loud.

Use this poster/visual aid to help remind your students of conversation skills. This can be displayed in your classroom or used as a visual aid during the activities in this resource.
