

Use these games to help your students build and practice their friendship skills!

They are perfect for...

- Friendship lessons or groups
- Kindness lessons or groups
- Social skills lessons or group
- With students who could benefit from being able to identify a good friend
- With students who could benefit from learning about conflict resolution skills

Includes A Board Game

B&W version included!

Players will make their way around the board as they discuss conflict resolution and the qualities of a good friend. They will also reflect on their own friendships.

This game includes 48 cards:

- 16 “Real Life” Cards
- 16 “Friend Or No Friend” Cards
- 16 “What Would You Do?” Cards

Includes A Letter Game

Students will respond to various friendship prompts with answers that begin with the same letter! Includes a sheet with four different cards.

Includes A “Build A Friend” Game

B&W version included!

Players will roll a dice as they race to see who can build their friend the fastest! Each time they roll, they will add the corresponding piece and answer the discussion question.

Includes A Conflict Resolution Matching Game

Students will look at various scenarios and consider how the problems can be resolved peacefully.

Cards will be cut out and placed face down. Players will take turns turning them over, trying to find the problem and it's matching solution.

It includes cards without photos for more advanced learners.
