

Use these resources to promote a welcoming and inclusive school culture!

These activities can be used with or without the book All Are Welcome by Alexandra Penfold.

The resource includes a cut & paste activity, a booklet, 12 discussion cards, and 3 posters.

Perfect for...

- Morning meetings to encourage a positive classroom culture
- Social skills lessons or groups
- Diversity and inclusion lessons or groups
- Students who could benefit from learning to respect differences
- Promoting a positive school culture

“IS IT WELCOMING?” CUT & PASTE ACTIVITY

Students will identify practical ways that they can include and welcome others.

They will look at 18 actions and decide whether or not they will help someone else feel included and welcomed.

“INCLUDING OTHERS” BOOKLET

This 6-page booklet includes prompts that will encourage students to think about why inclusion is important and how they can help others feel welcomed and included.

Comes in color & black and white!

12 DISCUSSION CARDS

Tell about a time when you have felt welcomed or included.

If someone were new to our school or class, what could we do to help them feel welcomed?

How can you include others when you are at lunch?

How can you include others when you are in the classroom?

How can you include others on the bus or after school?

These 12 task cards will encourage students to think about why it is important to include others and how they can make their class or school a more welcoming place.

These are perfect to use in morning meetings or classroom lessons!

3 POSTERS

These posters can be displayed in your classroom or office to encourage students to be welcoming and inclusive.

The black and white versions can also be used as coloring pages!

GOOGLE SLIDES INCLUDED

These inclusion and acceptance activities are also provided in a digital format to support educators doing distance learning or looking to incorporate technology into their lessons!

Is It Welcoming?
Look at the situations below and decide whether they are a way to help someone else feel welcomed and included. Click on each box and then drag it over the right box. There are 18 examples to sort.

Things that help others feel welcomed and included:	Things that don't help others feel welcomed and included:

- Ignoring someone.
- Only playing with people who look like you.
- Listening to what others say.
- Laughing at someone for not knowing the answer.
- Telling someone they can't play.
- Learning about someone's culture.

1 Tell about a time when you have felt welcomed or included. Type answer here	2 Tell about a time when you have helped someone else feel welcomed or included. Type answer here	3 Why is it important to include others and help them feel welcomed? Type answer here
4 When someone is welcomed and included, how might they feel? How might they feel if they are not welcomed and included? Type answer here	5 If someone were new to our school or class, what could we do to help them feel welcomed? Type answer here	6 What can we do as a class or a school to help each other feel included? Type answer here

WHAT OTHERS ARE SAYING...

“My students loved using this resource and it really helped our classroom become more of a community. 10/10 would recommend.”

– Kaitlyn G.

“I absolutely love this book & the companion resource is perfect! Engaging, informative, awesome.”

–Candace D.

“My students loved making the included booklet! Great way to teach students about including others!” –Caroline C.

LOVE SEL READ ALOUDS? BUNDLE & SAVE!

These read aloud activities are part of a book companion bundle that includes social emotional learning resources to go with 22 picture books.

SEE THE BUNDLE HERE