

Make social emotional learning easier with these “question of the day” calendars!

Each month covers a different SEL topic, and there is an editable version so you can change the months, and/or questions as needed!

What's Included

This resource includes 12 calendars (in PDF and editable PPT format). Each calendar includes a daily question to help kids understand and apply the month's topic.

Topics Include:

- Growth Mindset (Jan.)
- Diversity & Inclusion (Feb.)
- Self-Esteem (Mar.)
- Friendship (Apr.)
- Conflict Resolution (May)
- Social Problem Solving (June)
- Feelings (July)
- Coping Skills (Aug.)
- Self-Control (Sept.)
- Bullying Prevention (Oct.)
- Mindfulness (Nov.)
- Kindness (Dec.)

Ideas For Use

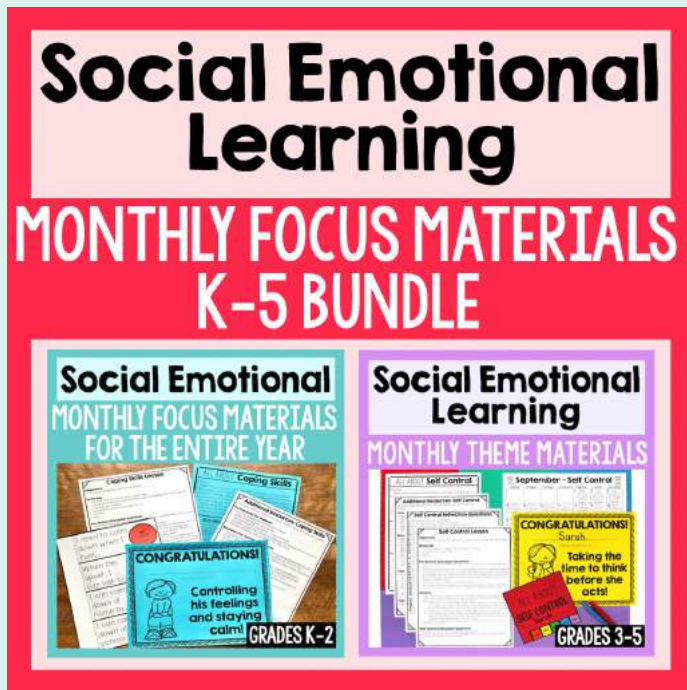

These calendars are a great way to encourage social emotional learning all month long.

Here are some ways to use them:

- Send the calendars home with kids to help families continue SEL at home
- Read the question of the day during morning meetings, or on the school announcements.
- Hang the calendar in your classroom or office and when students come to see you, ask them the question of the day.

Want more monthly theme materials? Bundle & save!

These monthly calendars are part of a larger “monthly theme” resource. This resource has everything you need for an SEL topic of the month at your school.

Each topic includes:
