

Help students learn the important social skill of staying on topic with this engaging card game!

- Students will practice staying on topic by making comments and asking questions.
- They will also have the chance to initiate conversation on a specific topic or a topic of their choice.
- Please note that this game can only be played with 3+ players.

Includes 90 game play cards!

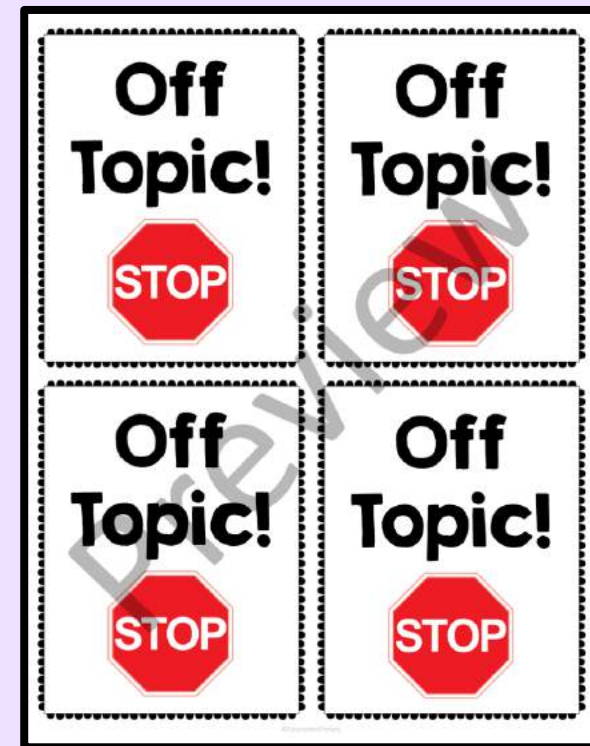

20 Game Play cards, 50 Questions/Comment cards
and 20 New Topic cards

Includes “Off Topic” cards and a list of suggested topics!

Suggested Topics
Your Family Who is in your family? What do you like to do together? Do you have a big family or a small family?	Your Favorite Vacation Who went with you? Where did you go? What did you do? How did you get there?
Your Favorite Food What is it? When do you eat it? What do you like about it? What does it look like?	A TV Show Or YouTube Video You Like What is it? What do you like about it? Who are the characters?
Your Favorite School Subject What is it? Why is it your favorite? What is your favorite thing you have learned?	Your Favorite Game What kind of game is it? What is it called? How do you win? Who do you play with?
A Book You Like What is it called? Who is the author? What is it about? Why do you like it?	What You Like To Do Is it inside or outside? Why is it fun? Who do you like to do these things with?
What You Want To Be When You Grow Up What is it? Why do you want this job? What will you have to do to get this job?	Your Favorite Holiday What is it? When is it? How do you celebrate? Who do you celebrate with?

This list can be given to players or placed on the table. Players will be able to look at the list to give them ideas of conversation topics. This is great to use with students who may be anxious in social situations, or have trouble coming up with things to say.

These cards can be cut out and given to the players to silently hold up when they notice someone going off topic.

What other educators are saying about this resource...

“My students loved this game! It is so helpful to get the conversation practice that they need in a game like situation! Thank you for sharing!”

“This is a super engaging way to teach conversational skills. My students loved it!”
–Kaitlyn C.

“I love this resource because I can use it for so many of my students. My students don't realize how much they are learning because it is "disguised" as a game!” –Charlene J.

Love using games in your lessons? Bundle & save!

Social Skills Games Bundle

INCLUDES 12 SETS OF GAMES

This resource is a part of a bundle that includes 12 sets of games focused on social emotional learning concepts. Students will have fun learning about empathy, feelings, self-esteem, positive behavior, friendship and more!

SEE THE BUNDLE HERE