

Includes 20 puzzles!

Students will look at each puzzle and match the four parts of the apology.

I'm sorry
for copying on
my test.

Next time I will keep my eyes on my
own test,
even if I
don't know
the answer.

It's wrong
because it's cheating
and not honest.

Can I do
anything
to make it better?

I'm sorry
for laughing at
you when you fell.

It's wrong
because it wasn't funny and
you could have been hurt.

Next
time I will ask
if you
are okay.

Can I do
anything
to make it
better?

Name: _____

All About Apologizing

- The four parts of an effective apology are:
 - _____
 - _____
 - _____
 - _____
- Giving a sincere apology is important because _____
- Apologizing can be hard because _____
- A time when someone apologized to me was _____
- When someone apologizes to me, I feel _____
- A time when I have had to apologize was _____
- When I apologized, it made me feel _____

Name: _____

Four Part Apology

Directions: Write a scenario in the boxes below that describe a situation in which someone would need to apologize. Then, fill out the four parts of the apology.

Scenario #1

| | | |
|------------------|-----------------------|---------------------|
| I'm sorry for... | It's wrong because... | Next time I will... |
| | | |

Scenario #2

| | | |
|------------------|-----------------------|---------------------|
| I'm sorry for... | It's wrong because... | Next time I will... |
| | | |

Includes 2 worksheets!

Students will reflect on the importance of apologizing. Students will also practice using the four part apology for scenarios they face in real life!

HOW TO APOLOGIZE

STEP ONE:
"I'm sorry for..."

STEP TWO:
"It's wrong because..."

STEP THREE:
"Next time, I will..."

STEP FOUR:
"Can I do anything to make it better?"

Includes a poster/visual aid!

This can be used as a reference during the activity or displayed in your classroom/office.