

Use these gingerbread themed activities to teach your students about friendship!

Perfect for:

- Friendship lessons or small groups
- Winter counseling or SEL lessons
- Social skills lessons or small groups
- With students who could benefit from learning how to be a good friend and learning how to choose good friends
- With students who could benefit from increased friendship skills

Roll A Gingerbread Friend

During this game, students will use a dice to see who can roll a gingerbread friend first!

As they play, they will respond to prompts about the characteristics of a good friend.

Gingerbread Friend Booklet

Students will respond to 5 friendship prompts and then staple the pages together to make a booklet.

Students can then color the gingerbread friends.

Role Play Activity

Students will practice identifying and responding to the needs of others using the gingerbread puppets.

Recipe Worksheet

The Recipe For A Good Friend

By: _____

Add 2 cups of _____
One thing a good friend does
to a large bowl.

Then, mix in 1 cup of _____
One thing a good friend says

Add 3 tablespoons of _____
One thing you like to do with your friends

Mix it together with 2 teaspoons of _____
One thing a good friend does

Finally, add a pinch of _____ sprinkles.
A good friend is...

©Curator Online

Students will fill in the blanks according to the friendship prompts below each one.

Then, they can color the gingerbread friend on the left side of the page.

Good Friend Scenario Activity

The instructor will read through 10 scenarios and the students will decide whether or not the gingerbread in each situation is being a good friend.

WANT MORE WINTER RESOURCES? BUNDLE & SAVE!

These activities are a part of a bundle that includes 12 winter themed SEL and counseling resources. They will help you celebrate Christmas, New Year's, Valentine's Day, and the winter season with your students!

SEE THE BUNDLE HERE