

Use these activities to teach your students what a 4 part apology is and how to use it!

They are perfect for:

- Conflict resolution small groups or lessons
- Friendship skills small groups or lessons
- Social skills small groups or lessons
- Students who could benefit from learning to apologize effectively

POSTER/VISUAL AID

Hang this poster in your classroom or office to remind students how to form a 4 part apology.

You can also use this as a visual aid during the rest of the activities in this resource.

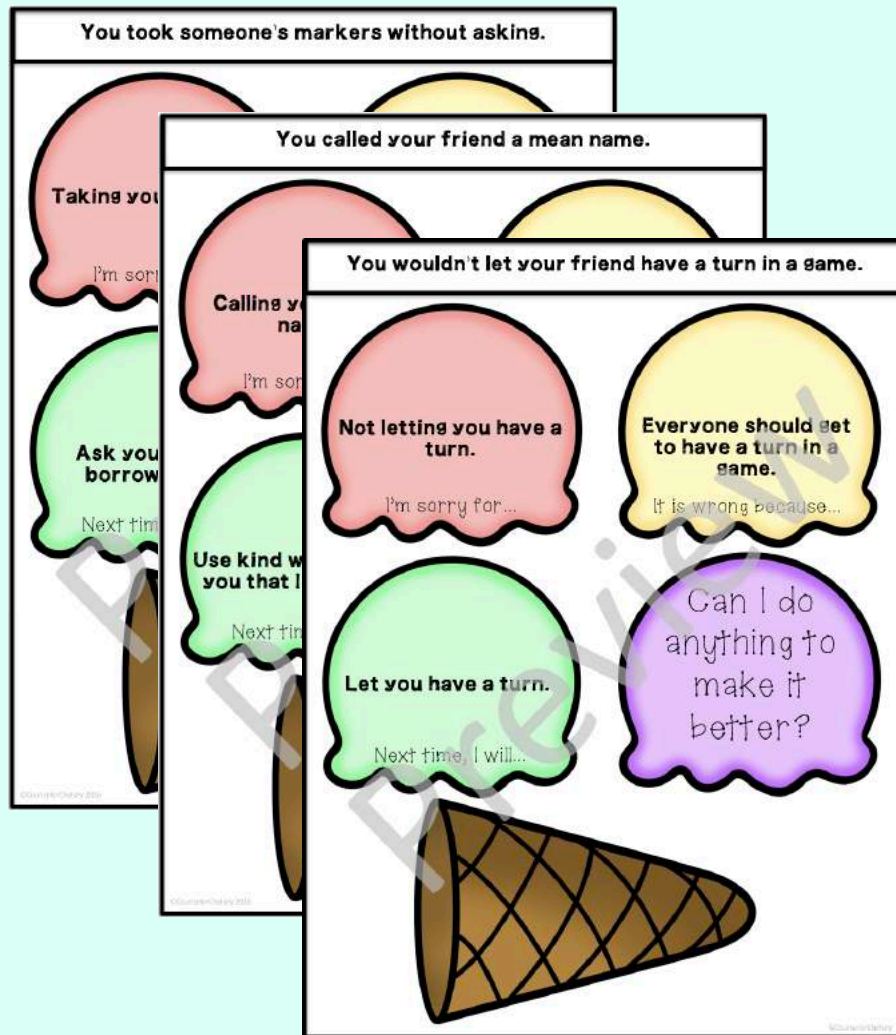

“PRACTICING AN APOLOGY” ACTIVITY

Students will look at 16 scenarios and practice forming a four part apology using the ice cream cone template.

For repeated use, you can laminate the cones and have students use dry erase markers. Students can then erase and repeat for each scenario card!

3 APOLOGY CONE EXAMPLES

These 3 completed examples can be assembled by students or used as a display to remind students how to use a four part apology in real world situations!

WHAT PEOPLE ARE SAYING...

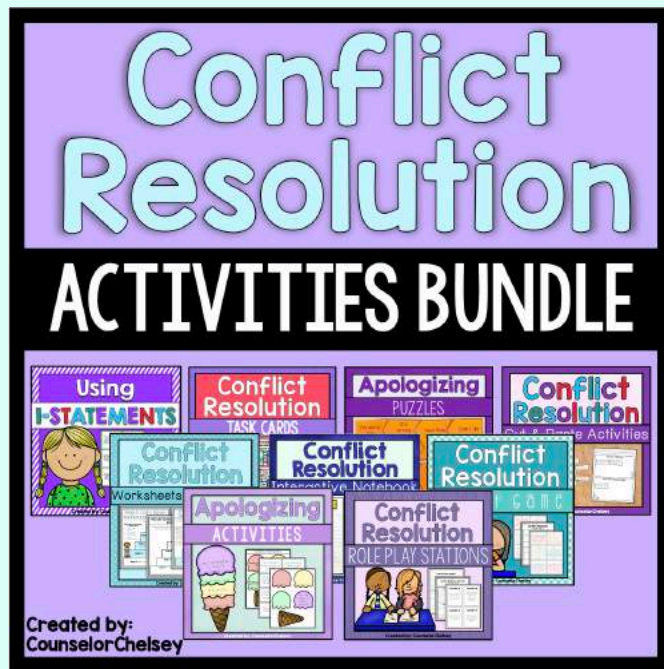

“My students loved building their apology cones. They came up with their own answers and built the cone at the end of the week. It was also something they could take home.”

–Stacey N.

“We used this during our SEL time. This helped my students be more aware of their language when apologizing and dealing with conflicts. Thanks for this resource!” –Rachel C.

“Taking responsibility & being able to give genuine apologies is such an important skill. I absolutely love using this resource, super cute & engaging. My students love this too. Will use for years to come.” –Candace D.
