

This fun and seasonal game will help your students learn and practice important social skills!

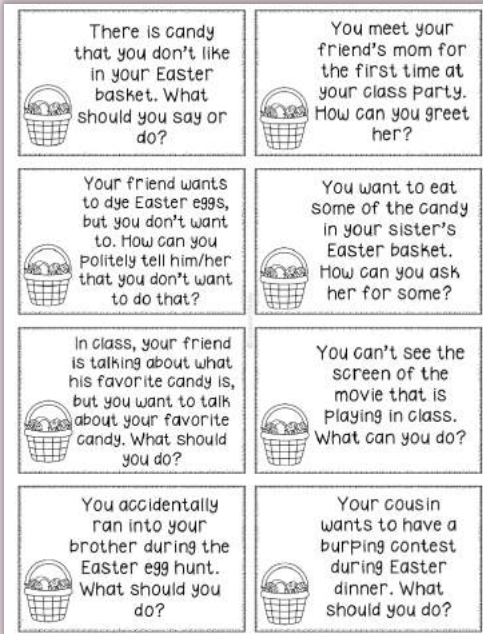

It's perfect for:

- Social skills lessons or groups
- Friendship lessons or groups
- Students who could benefit from learning to interact appropriately with others
- As a way to add seasonal fun to your counseling lessons

Keep scrolling to learn more about what's included.

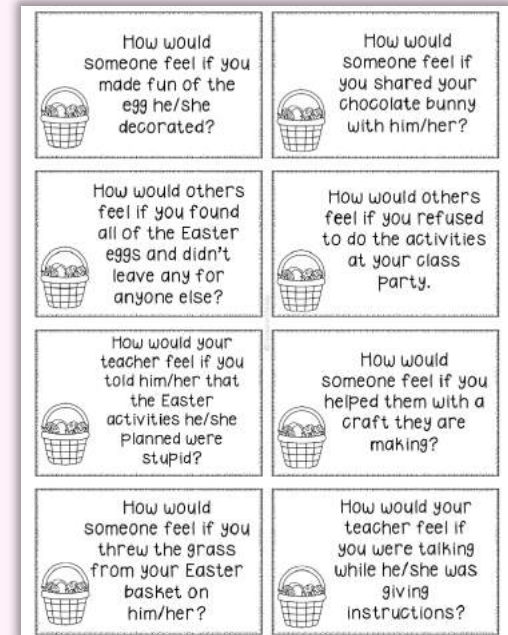

Includes 8 Cards About Manners

Players will talk about how they can be polite and respectful to others.

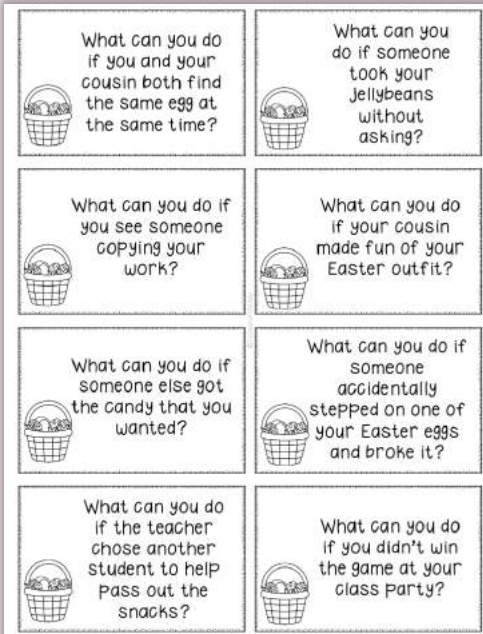

Includes 8 Cards About Empathy

Players will look at different scenarios and decide how the people in the scenarios would feel.

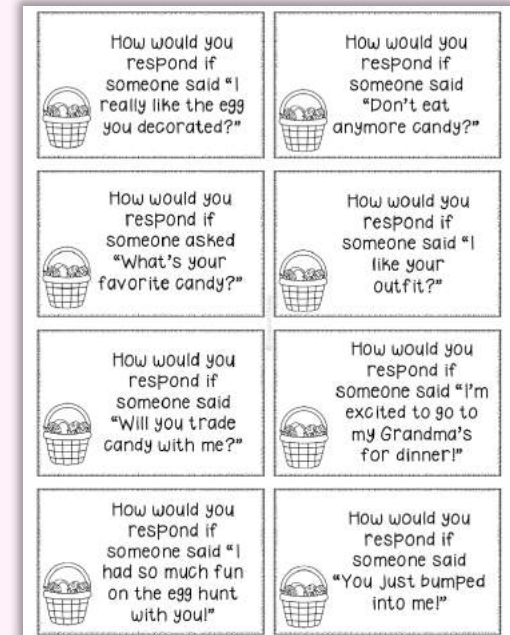

Includes 8 Cards About Social Problem Solving

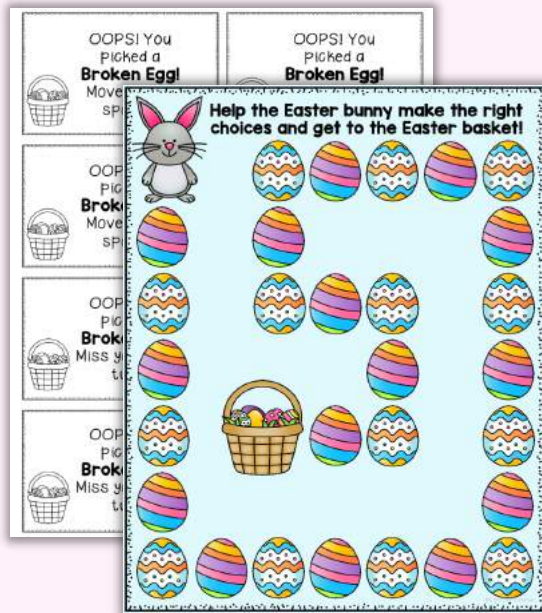

Players will talk about how they can respond to problems they may experience.

Includes 8 Cards About Responding Appropriately

Players will look at different conversation statements, and will decide what they can say in response.

Includes Game Cards & Game Board

The game cards will make the game more fun by having players move backwards or miss a turn.

What People Are Saying About This Game...

"Great content! Students loved using this game when they returned from easter break!"

"Very helpful resource. The students were engaged and enjoyed the lesson. Thanks for creating this!"

Want More Spring Resources? Bundle & Save!

These activities are part of a bundle that includes 6 spring-themed counseling and SEL resources.

They will help your students learn about important SEL concepts like self-esteem, social skills, coping skills and more!

See The Bundle Here